The Apotheon Reckoning is the revamped version of The Reckoning that was introduced in Season of the Drifter. It is a matchmade activity for three players, and it features a new set of challenges and rewards.

The Changes

The most significant change to The Reckoning is the addition of the Apotheon Trials. These are a series of three increasingly difficult encounters that must be completed in order to progress through the activity. Each encounter features a different boss, and each boss has its own unique mechanics.

Another change to The Reckoning is the addition of a new currency called Synthweave. Synthweave can be used to purchase new gear and weapons from the Reckoning vendor, The Drifter.

The Rewards

The rewards for completing The Apotheon Reckoning include:

- New weapons and gear
- Synthweave
- Triumphs
- Powerful gear

The Challenges

The Apotheon Reckoning is a challenging activity, but it is also very rewarding. Here are some tips for completing the activity:

- Make sure your team is well-coordinated. Communication is key in The Reckoning.
- Be prepared for the different mechanics of each boss. Each boss has its own unique set of abilities, so it is important to be prepared for anything.
- Use your abilities wisely. The Reckoning is a fast-paced activity, so it is important to use your abilities efficiently.
- Don't give up. The Reckoning is a challenging activity, but it is possible to complete it with a little patience and teamwork.

The Apotheon Reckoning is a great addition to Destiny 2. It is a challenging and rewarding activity that offers a new set of challenges and rewards. If you are looking for a new challenge, then The Apotheon Reckoning is definitely worth checking out.
