Join Riley and her emotions on an adventure inside the Headquarters of her mind in this Step into Reading book based on the Disney•Pixar film Inside Out.

Riley is a happy, outgoing 11-year-old girl who loves hockey, playing with her friends, and spending time with her family. But when her family moves to a new city, Riley's world is turned upside down. She misses her old friends, her old school, and her old life. And as Riley struggles to adjust to her new surroundings, her emotions take on a life of their own.

Joy, Sadness, Anger, Fear, and Disgust are the five emotions that live inside Riley's head. Joy is the leader of the emotions, and she always tries to keep Riley happy. Sadness is the most sensitive emotion, and she often feels left out. Anger is the hothead, and he's always ready to fight. Fear is the worrier, and he's always afraid of what might happen. And Disgust is the germophobe, and she's always trying to keep Riley clean.

As Riley tries to adjust to her new life, her emotions are all over the place. Joy is trying to keep Riley happy, but Sadness is making her feel down.

Anger is making her lash out at her parents, and Fear is making her afraid to try new things. Disgust is making her avoid new foods, and she's even starting to avoid her friends.

Riley is starting to feel overwhelmed by her emotions, and she doesn't know what to do. But when she finally opens up to her parents about how she's feeling, they help her to understand that it's okay to feel all of her emotions. And with the help of her emotions, Riley is able to overcome her challenges and find happiness in her new life.

Welcome to Headquarters Disney Pixar Inside Out: Step into Reading is a delightful book that teaches children about the importance of emotions. It's a great way to introduce children to the Disney•Pixar film Inside Out, and it's also a great way to help them to understand their own emotions.
